Matsuda celebrates Canada's 150th birthday in style

Canada's premium watch manufacturer to offer Canada 150 promotional product line

Matsuda, a premium watch manufacturer specializing in promotional watches and accessories, is launching today, a line of co-branded watches and accessories to commemorate the Canada 150 celebration. The line will include watches at different price points that will come imprinted with the Canada 150 official logo, and jewellery in a variety of styles. The full Canada 150 brochure can be found here.

"It's a privilege to be able to match our expertise in watch manufacturing with one of this country's greatest celebrations," says Dominic Leung, CEO of Matsuda. "As a proud Canadian who immigrated to Canada over 30 years ago, I'm thrilled to be a part of this historic celebration."

In the coming months, Matsuda will be releasing more information and exclusive promotions on its Canada 150 products. Here's what you can look forward to:

- Classic dress and sporty watches in a range of colours and prices, starting from $29.95. Co-branding is available on the watch face and the case back.
 - A total of 19 styles, including 9 for his and hers
 - Stainless steel, leather, silicone, and rubber straps available
 - 5 year manufacturer's warranty on all watches
- Jewellery and accessories representing some of Canada's most symbolic characters; like the beaver, maple leaf, and polar bear.

About Matsuda: Matsuda has been a premier supplier of promotional watches in Canada since 1984. An expert in custom logo watch manufacturing, Matsuda specializes in corporate gifts and private label timepieces.
